DR. J. BOVEE DODS'

IMPERIAL WINE

BITTERS.

ARE made from a pure and unadulterated Wine, which is about double the strength of other

Wines, and is imported by only one house in the United States. It is sold by all the leading druggists, and is also sold by the wholesale and retail dealers in the city. It is a valuable remedy for all the effects of Brandy or Wine, without intoxicating, and is a valuable remedy for persons addicted to excessive use of strong drink, and wish to refrain from it. They are pure and entirely free from the poison contained in the adulterated Wines and Liquors with which the country is flooded.

These Bitters not only CURE, but PREVENT Diseases, and should be used by all who live in a country where the water is bad, or where Chills and Fevers are prevalent. Being entirely innocuous and harmless, they may be given freely to Children and Infants with impunity.

For Sore Throat, so common among the Clergy, they are truly valuable.

For the aged and infirm, or for persons of a weak constitution—for Ministers of the Gospel, Lawyers, and all public speakers—for Book-keepers, Tailors,

Seamstresses, and all who are engaged in any sedentary life, they will prove truly beneficial.

As a Beverage, they are wholesome, innocent, and delicious to the taste. They produce all the exhilarating effects of Brandy or Wine, without intoxicating, and are a valuable remedy for persons addicted to excessive use of strong drink, and wish to refrain from it. They are pure and entirely free from the poison contained in the adulterated Wines and Liquors with which the country is flooded.

These Bitters not only CURE, but PREVENT Diseases, and should be used by all who live in a country where the water is bad, or where Chills and Fevers are prevalent. Being entirely innocuous and harmless, they may be given freely to Children and Infants with impunity.

Where breathes the foe but falls before us
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us

A Republican Convention will be held in the city of Watertown, on Wednesday, September 24th, 1862, at 12 o'clock M., for the purpose of nominating a candidate to Congress from the Second Congressional District. All loyal citizens of the district, without regard to past political differences, who, in this hour of national trial and peril, will sustain the state and federal administrations in a vigorous prosecution of the war, until rebellion is crushed, traitors punished, the integrity of the Union preserved, and the supremacy of the constitution and laws enforced and respected throughout every state and territory included within the national boundaries, are invited to unite with the republicans in electing delegates to this convention.

Each Assembly and Senatorial district will be entitled to two delegates in said convention.

B. F. HOPKINS, W. M. GRISWOLD,
LUTHER A. COLE, H. H. GILES,
S. J. TODD, J. M. BURGESS.

Republican Senatorial Committee.

Dated August 25th, A. D. 1862.

The Situation.

Our military affairs are in a desperate condition near Washington, if reports are true. It is announced that General Pope, with his whole column, is retreating to Washington; and that Gen. Jackson is marching with 40,000 men, via Leesburg, to Edward's Ferry, where he intends to cross the Potomac and move on Baltimore. If this is the fact the latter city may be in the hands of the rebels before Sunday, and Washington beleaguered on all sides. Comment, at this time, on this state of things and the causes that have brought these misfortunes upon us, are useless.

The News.

The President has ordered Gen. McClellan to take command of the fortifications of Washington, and of all the troops for the defense of the Capital.

Gen. Jackson telegraphed from Warrenton to Richmond on the 24th that he had captured enough provisions to feed his whole force for some time. It is said that the rebels also got a large amount of subsistence at Manassas Junction.

Late advices from Fort Dodge, Iowa, state that apprehensions from the Indians have ceased. It is still believed that the uprising has been stimulated by secession sympathizers.

It is reported that the rebels, 20,000 to 30,000 strong, are within thirty-nine miles of Cincinnati. Citizens are enrolling themselves and working on the fortifications on the Kentucky hills. There is great excitement in Louisville, and martial law has been proclaimed. The citizens are enrolling themselves in home guards. Indiana has sent 12,000 men into Kentucky since Wednesday.

Fort Ridgely has been reinforced by Col. Sibby. The garrison is safe. They repulsed an assault of the Indians previous to the arrival of aid, which was the last seen of their enemies. The Indians have carried off about two hundred captives, mostly women and children, and an immense amount of plunder. Col. Sibby will attack them wherever he can find them.

The rebels are concentrating in large force at Cross Hollow, Ark., with the intention of marching north to Ft. Leavenworth. Pike appears to be their leader. General Blunt is concentrating a force to meet them, at a point east and south of Fort Scott.

A fraud in enrollments for the militia has been discovered in Pennsylvania. Berks, the great democratic county, has 16,000 voters, and has enrolled 6,282.

The Pacific Railroad Commissioners are in session at Chicago. W. B. Ogden has been elected president, H. V. Poor secretary, and Thos. W. Olcott treasurer.

Objects of the Extra Session.

The Madison Patriot says it is reported that the objects for which the extra session of the legislature is called are to raise money, repeal the law relating to military exemptions, and to extend the elective franchise to volunteers.

THE FOURTH WISCONSIN.—The Sentinel has a letter from Dr. Nordstrand, of the 4th Wisconsin, written at Baton Rouge, Aug. 14th. Up to that time, the 4th had lost 41 men by death from disease, 2 by accident, and 14 killed by the enemy.

The Secretary of War having extended the time for the reception of volunteers in the old regiments to the 15th inst., a further opportunity is offered for filling up those regiments. Recruiting officers are located in this city, who will receive all volunteers and furnish transportation to the regiments selected. All the government bounties accompany this extension of time.

THE WAR IN VIRGINIA.

History of the Plan and Movement of the Rebels.

Correspondence of the New York Herald.

WASHINGTON, August 28. I scarcely know where or how to begin to write up the events of the day. They, or the reports of them, come in so thick and fast that one almost goes crazy in listening to them. However, for few here know of the condition and how it is going on, nor shall I had not fortune favor me with position, where I could learn a story of details only intended for the ears of those in authority. I cannot write of the movements of our own troops, but the rules of the war department do not extend to those of the rebels. Consequently I may say how and where they have deployed their forces to so terribly menace us.

JACKSON AFTER CEDAR MOUNTAIN BATTLE.

First, then, after the battle of Cedar Mountain, the forces under Stonewall Jackson withdrew from the vicinity of the Rapidan, and were for some days unheard of, except that a strong force was in the vicinity of Madison Court House, some twelve miles to the westward, in the vicinity of Luray and the Shenandoah valley; but it was supposed that this was only a wing of the army under Ewell, intended to act as reserves to Jackson's army, and to cover his retreat back to Gordonsville. Not so, however. These forces of Ewell, we now find, to our surprise, were the main body of Jackson's army, on route for the Shenandoah valley.

THE REBEL PLAN.

Jackson, with a force of thirty-five thousand men, was to march via the Shenandoah river, to a point known as Berryville, or Berry's ford, some twenty-eight miles north-west from Warrenton. General Lee, with the bulk of the rebel army, was to take the front, left and right, and engage Gen. Pope at or near the Rapidan, while Jackson and Ewell were to cross the Shenandoah river and mountains, cut off his supplies by way of the railroad, and menace his rear.

WHY THE PLAN WAS NOT CARRIED OUT.

But when Jackson had reached Gordonsville and Madison Court House it was found that Gen. Pope had penetrated further into Virginia than was expected. General Lee, with the main army, had not yet come up, and it was feared that if Jackson continued on, as per programme, Gen. Pope would reach Gordonsville before Lee's arrival, and thus cut off the (Jackson's) supplies.

WHAT JACKSON HAD TO DO INSTEAD.

Consequently Jackson threw a part of his army directly in Gen. Pope's track at Cedar creek, hoping to check his advance across the Rapidan, and the battle of Cedar Mountain was fought. You will bear in mind that Jackson continued to hold the field until Monday night; but on Tuesday morning he was gone, and, as our scouts brought in word that a large rebel army was at Gordonsville and Orange Court House, it was believed that Jackson had retreated in that direction. But not so. Jackson had moved off through Madison Court House, and the immense rebel forces at Gordonsville and Orange were the main army, under General Lee, who had arrived from Richmond.

WHEN JACKSON LEFT CEDAR MOUNTAIN.

He proceeded immediately to Madison Court House, where he rejoined Ewell. Then the reunited army marched to Luray, in the Shenandoah valley, thence northward to Berry's ford, where he crossed, while Lee was keeping Pope engaged in front. Lee's plan was to keep Pope between the Rapidan and the Rappahannock rivers until Jackson had attained his position at Manassas (or perhaps at Rappahannock bridge); but Gen. Pope's retreat to the Rappahannock's north bank frustrated that design, and rendered it necessary for Lee to follow up his advantage, and by a system of feints, to take Gen. Pope's attention from his rear and divert it to his front.

JACKSON IN POPE'S REAR—WHAT HE DID.

Gen. Jackson crossed the Shenandoah at Berry's ford on Wednesday, the 20th, and immediately started across toward Warrenton, but when he had proceeded a few miles, he learned that Pope had fallen back, and that Sigel, with the right of our army, was in occupancy of Warrenton Springs. Then he changed his course further to the northward, and encamped twelve miles north of Warrenton and two miles west of the main road leading to Winchester. Here strong pickets were thrown out, and every human being for miles around was taken into camp and retained in duress. That night a body of cavalry under Gen. Stuart pushed in to Catlett's station and surprised and destroyed the staff train of Gen. Pope, the particulars of which have already been given to your readers.

On Sunday and Monday Gen. Jackson, with his army, moved forward, and on Tuesday reached Centerville, from whence the forces of Wm. Fitz Hugh Lee moved on to Manassas the same night, following the next day, so that on Wednesday morning we find thirty thousand rebels in Gen. Pope's rear, on the railroad, his supplies cut off, and he hemmed in by his foes on the front, rear and flank.

THE REBELS IN THE SHENANDOAH VALLEY.

Not all, however, of Jackson's army are at Manassas, as a force variously estimated at from five to ten thousand men, mostly or quite all cavalry, continued on down the Shenandoah in the direction of Harper's Ferry, when Jackson moved toward Manassas. Of this force I learn but little since their departure from Berry's ford; but I am of the opinion their design is to cross the Potomac into Maryland, or to divert attention from the more important fields of Virginia. Already we hear of a rebel force being in the rear of Winchester, and between that place and the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, and it is more than probable this is the first appearance in a new quarter of this offshoot of Jackson's army.

THE CAPTURE OF MANASSAS NOT A MAID.

The idea we had indulged in here, that the capture of Manassas was only a successful ruse by a body of rebel guerrillas, is now dissipated. Jackson again occupies Manassas in force. He has captured and destroyed a vast deal of property—how much it is impossible to say, but this much is now known: there are eleven locomotives and thirty-four cars beyond the break. The Bull Run bridge is destroyed, as are two or three others in the vicinity.

Anthony Burns, the fugitive slave, whose arrest in Boston in 1854 created such an excitement, died at St. Catharines, C. W., on the 27th of July. It will be remembered that after he was remanded to bondage, money was raised and his freedom purchased.

Last Night's Report.

PORT MONROE, Aug. 31.

The Ironsides left Fort Monroe at noon for Philadelphia. Her trip has been successful. A flag of truce was sent up the James river to Atkin's landing, today, and carried up Col. Forney of Alabama, who was wounded and taken prisoner and paroled some time ago. Took up some women and children. The steamer Baltic is being loaded with troops to-day.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 2.

Gov. Curtin, to meet a requisition from the President, has issued orders for the formation of three cavalry regiments with twenty days advance pay and bounty to be paid. The friends of Chas. Ingersoll engaged Bergfield's band for a serenade, last night, but kept the band in the dark, as to the object. After playing a few tunes they were taken to the residence of Judge Chadvalder. Peter McCall and Judge Wharton, the managers of the affair, went and Dixie and the Marais played, but band refused, and played national airs instead. The originators of the affair are not known. Four city regiments left yesterday for Washington.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.

A train of cars having on board five or six hundred soldiers who were wounded in Saturday's fight, came down this morning from Fairfax. They represent, among others, the 25th Ohio, 6th regulars, 7th New York, and a number of other regiments. A guard also came down, having in charge several confederate prisoners.

Our army has advanced two miles towards the late battle field. The killed are being buried and the wounded removed under a flag of truce. About 2,300 have thus far been removed from the various fields of battle.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.

Among the passengers in the California steamer was Leads Leland, Esq., of the Metropolitan Hotel, who goes to San Francisco to take charge of a new mammoth hotel.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.

Special to Post.—A long train of wounded soldiers have just come in from Fairfax Station. It is reported that the surgeons, who went out as nurses, have fallen into the hands of the rebels. Senator Fessenden is expected here to night. His son Samuel was killed in the battle of Friday, and was buried at Centerville. Gen. Ashley of Ohio has arrived here.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 2.

Means have been taken for the confiscation of the property of Trusten Polk, formerly U. S. Senator from this state. Capt. Twinnell is ordered to seize the same, both real and personal, and take an inventory thereof. His property is estimated at one hundred thousand dollars. Polk long since placed himself under the protection of the provost marshal general. Evidence of disloyal demonstrations was furnished, and should it appear that the association is thoroughly disloyal, its property will be confiscated.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.

Gens. Kearney and Stevens were killed in a severe engagement which took place last evening near Chandler, about two miles north of Fairfax Court House. A portion of Gen. Pope's army and Jackson's forces, our loss was heavy, but the enemy was driven back a mile, and we occupied the field of battle until two o'clock this afternoon.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1st.

Recent advices received from the vicinity of the late sanguinary conflicts in Virginia, report affairs in that locality as being comparatively quiet. Parties who left Centerville late yesterday evening, report that the command of Gen. Banks, which had been removed out, arrived at that point about five o'clock yesterday afternoon. There can be but little doubt of the correctness of this report, as our informant states that he witnessed the arrival of the command.

It is further stated that a march of 25 miles was accomplished by them on that day in order to reach that position. Yesterday evening at 6 o'clock our army was withdrawn behind the hills of Centerville as a feat it is believed to draw in the enemy, but they did not advance. This morning our army again advanced two miles towards the old battle-field. The large reinforcements which have arrived there, consisting of artillery and infantry, make the army perfectly safe. No firing took place after o'clock Saturday night. Kearney's division remained on the field till 11 o'clock on Sunday.

The raid was made between Fairfax Court House and Centerville, on Sunday morning, between 8 and 9 o'clock. Fifteen of our ambulances being in advance of the train, in a hollow, were captured. Some shells were thrown into the enemy, but no response was made. This morning a slight skirmish took place in Kearney's division.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2d.

By direction of the President all the clerks and employees of the civil department, and all the employees in the public buildings in Washington, will be immediately organized into companies, under Brig. Gen. Wadsworth, and will be armed and equipped with ammunition for the defense of the capital.

To-Day's Report.

(Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.)

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.

Both branches of our city council have concurred in voting an appropriation of $300,000 for bounty to volunteers, and $10,000 additional to each of the old regiments who shall reorganize for the war. The board of supervisors also appropriated $250,000 additional for the relief of the families of volunteers.

St. Joseph, Sept. 2.

Pointexter, the notorious rebel leader of the guerrilla bands in Missouri, was caught last night on the North Missouri railroad, twenty miles from Hudson, asleep in a house. He is condemned as a spy and will suffer death.

PORT MONROE, Sept. 3.

The steamship Baltic, with 1200 soldiers on board, comprising the 13th and 25th militia regiments, ran aground on Winter Quarter shoal on Monday afternoon. 800 soldiers were taken off by the schooner Trade Wind.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.

The Asia, from Liverpool the 23d, via Queenstown 24th, arrived here this morning. Her dates are two days later. Political news unimportant. Garibaldi's position was without change. It was stated that the recent movement of the Tuscarora had been a mere dodge of the British steamer Ajax, in order to obtain coal. American securities were advancing.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 3.

Business still suspended. Active preparations continue for defense. Martial law is in full force, and all citizens are compelled to enroll themselves in their respective divisions, organized and put on duty on the fortifications. Reports are conflicting as to the whereabouts of the rebels. Telegraphic communication open to Boyd's Station.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 3.

The Inquirer of this city makes the following statements:—Baton Rouge has been completely destroyed by our troops. Gen. Breckinridge had demanded its surrender. He had a large army with him. Falls Church has been evacuated by our troops. The wounded who were at the hospitals there have been removed to Washington. The railroad bridge at Bull Run has been destroyed by the rebels. Stonewall Jackson is on his way to Baltimore, via Leesburg, with 40,000 men. He intends crossing near Edward's ferry. Latest from Gen. Pope's headquarters says that his whole column was falling back, and thence to Washington.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.

The following is the correct form, in which the order in reference to Gen. McClellan has been issued:

WAR DEPARTMENT, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, Sept. 2.

General Orders, No. 122.—Major Gen'l McClellan will have command of the fortifications of Washington, and all the troops for the defense of the Capital.

By command of Maj. Gen. HALLECK.

E. D. TOWNSEND, A. G.

General Grant's Headquarters, Sept. 2, 1 p. m., via Cairo, 4 p. m.

To Maj. Gen. E. W. Halleck, G. West-Union, Mo. Col. Dennis, with from 400 to 500 men, met with rebel cavalry yesterday, a few miles west of Wheeling, in superior force, driving them and whipping them badly. The enemy left 110 dead on the field, and their wounded are estimated at over 250. Our loss is five killed and forty wounded.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.

Tribune's correspondence.—The latest trustworthy news from the front was brought by a surgeon who left Fairfax Court House Monday evening, and reported to the military authorities here after midnight. The enemy was still pursuing or threatening to pursue the flanking movement to which Gen. Pope's dispatches of yesterday referred. Gen. Lee was believed to have massed his troops on the Little River turnpike, which runs to the north of Centerville from Gum Springs through Germantown and Fairfax Court House to Alexandria. Ample preparations have been made to meet him, and the probabilities were that there would be a great battle fought to day or to-morrow. The opposition was strengthened by telegrams from Fairfax Station, dated later in the evening, to the effect that there was heavy firing in the direction of Leesburg, and between which place and Fairfax Station lies Fairfax Court House.

The report brought by other officers who left at an earlier hour than this surgeon was that the enemy had fallen back with his whole army for lack of supplies, being satisfied with what he has already done, at least feeling himself unable to accomplish more. These gentlemen supposed the movements of our right flank to be on the retreat.

LATER.

There is little or no doubt that there was heavy skirmishing between our forces and the enemy's advance on our outposts last night. This morning's reports are not yet accessible. The 11th Mass. went into the fight on Friday with about 210 men; 105 were killed and wounded. The 12th N. Y. with 351 men and officers, and the 13th N. Y. with 106 men and 9 officers. The four other regiments of this brigade, Butterfield's, the 16th and 17th N. Y., 83d Pa., and 16th Mich., came into the same proportion. Butterfield's brigade had marched for 21 days without change of clothes, and went into the fight in that fatigued condition.

On Monday morning intelligence was received at headquarters that the divisions of Hill and Longstreet intended to appear on our right in force and cut off our supply trains. To prevent this consummation the division of Gen. Reno was dispatched by Pope to Fairfax Court House. It was also deemed prudent to commence the evacuation of Centerville, to cover our base of operations, inasmuch as Gens. Hill and Longstreet were known to be in force some distance towards Washington from the battle field of Saturday, and as a reconnaissance to the front had revealed an anticipated movement in the same direction by the enemy, the army of Virginia commenced retreating towards Fairfax Court House on Monday at three o'clock, Reno's division leading, and McDowell's corps following. As Reno's division was pursuing its line of march and when within one and half miles of Fairfax Court House, a heavy volley from a force of riflemen came pouring in upon them from the woods, to the right of the road. This occurred at 4 P. M.

The rebel force was a detachment from Gen. Hill's division. The volley was almost entirely received by Gen. Stevens' brigade, composed of the 25th Massachusetts, 9th Michigan, 50th Pennsylvania, 105th Pennsylvania, and 46th New York. Reno and Stevens immediately formed their commands in line of battle to repel the attack. Gen. Stevens rode up and down his line, gallantly rallying his men, intimidated by repeated volleys from an unseen enemy, and unable to cope with them in the position they then held. Gen. Stevens ordered his men to fix bayonets and charge them out of the woods. This order was gallantly responded to by his men, who pressed the enemy and drove them with great slaughter. While thus charging, Gen. Stevens was hit with a minie ball and instantly killed, but not till the enemy was routed. Capt. Stevens, the son of the General, was also wounded in the hand. Kearney's batteries now opened on the rebel forces, causing great havoc among them. Skirmishing went kept up for about three hours, when the enemy retired and the train passed on. The enemy's loss was heavy.

HOUR FOR THE MEETING OF THE COUNTY CONVENTION CHANGED.

Attention is called to the change in the call for the County Convention, fixing the hour of meeting at 12 o'clock, at noon, instead of 3 o'clock P. M., as at first published.

FUNERAL OF CAPTAIN O'BRIEN.—The funeral of Capt. Moses O'Brien, of the 3d Wisconsin, who fell in the battle of Cedar Mountain, took place in Milwaukee last Sunday. The remains were attended by a company from the 24th regiment, and a detachment from the 26th, the American Corset band and a long cortege of carriages. The funeral sermon, delivered by Bishop Henni, at the Cathedral, was very impressive and eloquent. The Bishop took occasion to refer to the rebellion, and to urge upon his people to come forward and support the government by enlisting. The remains of the Captain were interred in the Catholic cemetery.

THE REBELLION RECORD.—This work is published by G. Putnam, New York, in monthly parts. It contains a vast amount of documentary matter connected with the rebellion, together with a diary of verified occurrences, poetry, anecdotes and incidents since the rebellion. It is a valuable work for reference, and should be well patronized by all who desire to be kept thoroughly posted in regard to the events of the war.

DEATH OF LIEUT. SMITH.—We learn that Lieut. Almon Smith, of the 5th Wisconsin Battery, died of typhoid fever, fifty miles south of Corinth, last week. He was a son of Israel Smith, of the town of Clarco, Green county, and nephew of Z. P. Burdick, Esq., of the town of Janesville.

THIRTIETH REGIMENT.—Companies A, F, I and E, under the command of Lieut. Col. Chapman, were sent from Columbus, by the river, on the 25th ult., to occupy Fort Henry.

CITY BOUNTY.

In addition to the subscriptions paid, as published in the Gazette of the 30th ult., the following persons have paid their subscriptions to the same fund:

Alex. Graham,	$10
M. P. Kinney,	5
H. Richardson,	10
E. S. Barrows,	10
Miles Doran,	5
I. Roberts,	5
C. B. Colwell, check payable in 15 days,	10
D. Noggle, credited by applying same on city bounty of $40 to C. L. Noggle,	10
in 12th Wisconsin battery,	10
K. W. Bemis,	10
E. J. Goodspeed,	10
J. W. Plato,	5
C. Hanson,	5

Ten dollars were paid by J. B. Casseday to A. C. Bates, and by A. C. Bates paid over to L. B. Carle, treasurer of the city bounty fund, making the total amount collected by me, $305, on hand to pay over. Rock County Bank certificate, $213. Rock County Bank, 45. C. L. Noggle, receipt, 10. Cash, 17. Paid for powder, 10. $315. Sept. 2d, 1862. J. NEIL.

CORRECTIONS.—The subscriptions of Wm. Eliser and Wm. R. Woodward to the city bounty fund were $5 each instead of the amounts published yesterday. Indistinct figures made some other subscriptions uncertain. J. D. Rexford paid $50, Dr. Maloney $25, J. P. Dickson $25, and Daniel Wilcox $10. These corrections and explanations make the list full and accurate.

FIRE.—The residence of Mr. J. H. Leavenworth, of Bradford, was burnt, on Saturday night. Nothing in the house saved. Loss about $2,000.

A bounty of $40 for each volunteer has been voted in the town of Bradford, to be assessed upon taxable property.

A GOOD APPOINTMENT.—Dr. J. B. Whiting, of this city, has been appointed surgeon of the 33d regiment. This is an excellent appointment in every respect.

DECLINED.—B. R. Hinchey has declined the appointment of colonel of the 29th regiment, and James M. Lewis of Waukesha county appointed in his place.

NEW ELEVATORS.—In addition to the present extensive facilities in Chicago for receiving grain, we learn that two first class elevators are being built on the South Branch by two of our leading warehouse firms, to be completed in a few months, and to be furnished throughout with the most approved machinery, including twenty-three of Fairbanks' 500 bushel Hopper scales, which is a sufficient guarantee that correct weights will be given. Besides these, the elevators will also be furnished with the most approved machinery, including twenty-three of Fairbanks' 500 bushel Hopper scales, which is a sufficient guarantee that correct weights will be given. Besides these, the elevators will also be furnished with the most approved machinery, including twenty-three of Fairbanks' 500 bushel Hopper scales, which is a sufficient guarantee that correct weights will be given.

THE BLOOD IS THE LIFE.—No more shall the poor suffer in our country languish, their constitutions now and then being stricken by dangerous mineral medicines; they will come to the fountain of health, found in simple herbs and roots from nature's storehouse. THE MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS, of innumerable mountain plants composed, will reach and stop their distress, and cause the blood, renewed and cleansed, to carry through the body the elements of health, building up the broken constitution, and carrying life and health, where but for them would have been the wreck of hope—a feeble man of suffering, at last made a strong and healthy man. Do not let prejudice overcome your better reason; do not look upon them as only like the others; do not let them disappear after trying everything else, prevent you from trying them. The blood must be pure, and then sickness is impossible. What a great and yet simple truth is that! It appeals to the common sense of all; it is the great key-stone of the healing art. JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS will purify and cleanse it as sure as the sun will rise to-morrow.

Judson's Mountain Herb Pills are sold by all Medicine Dealers.
